

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE "PROSECUTION vs. DEFENCE"

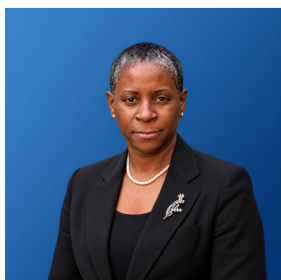

Biographical Portfolio of Invited Speakers

Flavius Crăznic*Founding & Managing Partner, Crăznic & Associates

Flavius Crăznic is the founder and managing partner of Crăznic & Asociații law firm, widely recognized for his expertise in white-collar crime and business criminal law. His professional background includes a significant tenure as a prosecutor within elite structures of the Public Ministry—an experience that provides him with a complete and profound understanding of both perspectives of criminal proceedings. Under his leadership over the past 10 years of activity, the law firm has become a benchmark in Romania, delivering complex defense strategies and achieving remarkable success in high-profile cases.

Cristina Chiriac*Prosecutor General of the Prosecutor's Office attached to the High Court of Cassation and Justice

A career magistrate with vast experience within the structures of the Public Ministry, Cristina Chiriac holds the position of Prosecutor General of Romania, coordinating the activity of the prosecution offices. Over the years, she has handled highly complex cases, demonstrating a profound commitment to the principles of legality, impartiality, and the independence of prosecutors. From her leadership position at the Prosecutor's Office attached to the High Court of Cassation and Justice, she promotes strict standards of professional ethics and focuses on strengthening the institutional capacity to combat crime, placing the discovery of the truth at the center of every judicial endeavor.

Dr. I. Stephanie Boyce CBE FKC*Honorary Professor of Law KCL, Former President of the Law Society of England and Wales

Dr. I. Stephanie Boyce CBE FKC is a world-renowned legal professional, distinguishing herself as the first person of color to hold the position of President of the Law Society of England and Wales in the institution's nearly two-century history. Throughout her extraordinary career, she has been repeatedly included in the rankings of the most influential legal figures in the UK and was appointed a Commander of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire (CBE) for outstanding services to justice. Currently, she continues her activity as an Honorary Professor of Law at King's College London, being internationally recognized for her steadfast support of the rule of law, diversity, and universal access to high-quality legal assistance.

Professor Aurel Ciobanu, PhD*Dean of the Bucharest Bar Association, Faculty of Law - University of Bucharest

Professor Aurel Ciobanu, PhD, is the Dean of the Bucharest Bar Association and one of the most reputable trial attorneys in Romania, specializing in criminal law and criminal procedural law. In addition to his courtroom practice, he leads a distinguished academic career at the Faculty of Law of the University of Bucharest, where he coordinates fundamental courses and guides generations of future legal professionals. He is highly recognized within the legal community for his major contribution to the modernization of the legal profession and for his active involvement in institutional dialogue aimed at streamlining the administration of justice in Romania.

Associate Professor Titus Corlățean, PhD*Former Minister of Justice, Former Minister of Foreign Affairs

Associate Professor Titus Corlățean, PhD, is a Romanian diplomat, jurist, and politician with extensive experience in central administration and international organizations, having served as Minister of Justice and Minister of Foreign Affairs. Academically, he works as a university lecturer and has authored numerous studies and specialized publications focusing on international law and human rights. His vast expertise at the European level, acquired notably within the Council of Europe, lends him significant authority in analyzing international treaties and the diplomatic guarantees required to protect the independence of legal professions. He is a Senior Partner at Crăznic & Asociații.

Dr. Corina Corbu*Former President of the High Court of Cassation and Justice

Dr. Corina Corbu is an elite Romanian magistrate with an exceptional career in the judiciary, which culminated in her tenure as President of the High Court of Cassation and Justice. Recognized for her professional rigor and managerial vision, she played a decisive role in the modernization and digitalization efforts of the supreme court. Throughout her entire activity at the level of the HCCJ, she has tirelessly campaigned for the independence of the judiciary and for a unified and predictable interpretation of the law, thereby ensuring strict respect for citizens' rights and the harmonization of judicial practice nationwide.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE "PROSECUTION vs. DEFENCE"

Biographical Portfolio of Invited Speakers

Dr. Alina Gorghiu*Former Minister of Justice, former President of the Romanian Senate

Dr. Alina Gorghiu is a career jurist and politician with a long-standing presence in the Romanian Parliament, having held high public offices, including that of Minister of Justice. She holds a PhD in criminal law and possesses rich experience as a practicing attorney, combining practical knowledge with a macro-institutional vision of the judicial system. Throughout her mandates, she has championed modern legislative reforms focused on court digitalization, supporting victims of crime, and firmly combating domestic violence, placing a strong emphasis on facilitating fast and effective access to justice for all citizens.

Marius Voineag*Deputy Prosecutor General, Former Chief Prosecutor of the National Anticorruption Directorate

Marius Voineag is a magistrate with a consolidated reputation in combating high-level corruption and organized economic-financial crime, holding key leadership positions, including Chief Prosecutor of the National Anticorruption Directorate and Deputy Prosecutor General of Romania. His career is marked by the coordination of complex investigations and the management of elite operational structures within the Public Ministry. He is recognized for his strategic approach to criminal investigation and for his focus on balancing prosecution efficiency with the preservation of procedural guarantees and the strict demands of public communication.

Daniel Fenechiu*Vice President of the National Association of Romanian Bars

Daniel Fenechiu is a prominent attorney and active member of Parliament, serving as Vice President of the National Association of Romanian Bars (UNBR). With over two decades of experience in the legal profession, he is one of the most vocal and engaged figures regarding the protection of the status and independence of lawyers in the face of ongoing legislative amendments. From his position within the UNBR and his role in parliamentary legal committees, he coordinates essential strategies for modernizing the framework of legal practice and maintaining democratic balance in the justice system.

Remus Robu*Solicitor, England & Wales

Remus Robu is a reputable lawyer recognized as a Solicitor in England and Wales, who has practiced for many years within the English legal system of the United Kingdom. He specializes in high-complexity litigation, severe personal injury, and cross-border cases, representing clients before British courts to the highest professional standards. Through his continuous activity in London, Remus Robu represents an essential bridge between the legal culture in Romania and best practice models of the Common Law system, serving as a keen analyst of professional dynamics on an international scale.

Liviu Vasilescu*Senior Advisor, Former Inspector General of the Romanian National Police

Liviu Vasilescu is an expert in strategic management with a legendary multi-decade career in the operational and leadership structures of the Romanian National Police, where he also held the position of Inspector General. His expertise covers the investigation of complex criminal activities, special operations, and the coordination of public order structures at a national level. Currently, from his position as a Senior Advisor, he brings a highly valuable practical perspective on the dynamics of real-world criminality, correlated with sociological theories of urban order.

Dr. Andrei Săvescu*Founder of JURIDICE.ro

Andrei Săvescu is an attorney within the Bucharest Bar Association and the visionary personality behind JURIDICE.ro, the most prominent and influential portal for legal debates and information in Romania. A PhD holder in law and a university lecturer, he has fundamentally contributed to creating a vibrant professional community, facilitating constructive dialogue among judges, prosecutors, lawyers, and the academic environment. He is recognized nationwide as an expert in legal technology, constantly analyzing the impact of digital transformations and Artificial Intelligence on the future of traditional professions in justice.